FY 2025-26

Proposed New

Miscellaneous Fees

FY 2025-26 Proposed New Miscellaneous Fees

Community Development Agency

1. Rental Registry Late Fee

Existing Fee: None

Proposed Fee: 8.2 % of rental registry fee for late registration between October 1 until October 31
 18.2% of rental registry fee for late registration between November 1 until November 30
 28.2% of rental registry fee for late registration between December 1 until December 31

Ordinance NS-3052, adopted by City Council on October 3, 2023, states that rental registry registration after October 1 of each fiscal year is delinquent, and delinquent accounts shall pay additional late charges. The requirement to collect additional late charges results in increased expense for the Rent Stabilization Division. The late fee schedule reflects staff and supply costs to institute new policies and procedures for the late charges, provide late registration notices, update information on digital platforms, and assist property owners with late registration.

Planning and Building Agency

1. Categorical Exemption/Environmental Determination- CEQA Analysis

Existing Name: None

Proposed Fee: $566.00

The City charges a fee for Categorical Exemption/Environmental Determination. This fee is to include an additional charge for exemptions requiring a CEQA Section 15300.2 analysis, which requires significantly more time to analyze and evaluate.

2. Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) Over-the-Counter Review

Existing Name: None

Proposed Fee: $571.00

The City charges a fee for accessory dwelling unit (ADU) reviews. This new fee is to reflect those ADUs that are reviewed on an over-the-counter basis, instead of those that are complex and taken in for review.

PRCSA is seeking to simplify this rate structure by setting the rental rate at $30-$45 per hour depending on group category. PRCSA is removing the rate differentiation of whether the reservation exceeds 6 hours and will now only be a single fee for each group category. Additionally, detail is added to the fee names to better describe what is considered a minor, moderate and major event for this space.

2. Zoo Admission

Existing Fee:

Adult-$13
Child/Senior-$10
Friends of Zoo-Free
SNAP Participants (Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program)-$3

Proposed Fee:

Adult-$14
Child/Senior-$11
Friends of Zoo-Free

The Fiscal Year 2024-25 General Fund budget (including Measure X) for the Zoo is $4,493,910. The revised FY 2024-25 anticipated admission revenue is $1,578,000. An increase of $1 (for adult, child/senior) is estimated to bring in an additional $120,000, based on FY 2023/24 ticket sales. The sum of the amounts will not provide full cost recovery, but will assist in reducing the reliance on the General Fund. Additionally,

FY 2025-26 Proposed Modified Miscellaneous Fees

the Museums for All fees were first implemented on 7/1/2024 with the intention of increasing access to the Zoo. Ticket sales at the zoo have decreased in almost exact correlation to the number of tickets under the Museums for All. This indicates that we are not expanding access to the zoo and increasing admission to those who did not have access before, but that attendees who would otherwise come and pay general admission are instead receiving admission at a discount. Thus, PRCSA is discontinuing the SNAP Participants admission.
