RECOMMENDED ACTION

1. Adopt a resolution approving Historic Resources Commission Application No. 2024-02 and Historic Register Categorization No. 2024-02 (Exhibit 1).
2. Recommend that the City Council authorize the City Manager and Clerk of the Council to execute the attached Mills Act agreement with Jill Brumett and Mona Konstan, subject to non-substantive changes approved by the City Manager and City Attorney (Exhibit 2).

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Jill Brumett and Mona Konstan are requesting approval to designate an existing Craftsman style residence located at 516 West 19th Street to the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties, as well as approval to execute a Mills Act agreement with the City of Santa Ana. The property qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an intact example of a Craftsman Style home in Santa Ana. It is worthy of “Key” categorization it has a distinctive architectural style and quality reflective of the Craftsman style, including its low-pitch gabled roof, exposed rafter tails, and front porch, among other features.

DISCUSSION

Project Location and Site Description

The subject property is located on the south side of West 19th Street between Greenleaf and Ross streets, in the Floral Park neighborhood in Santa Ana. The site contains a 1,160-square-foot, Craftsman style residence and detached garage, on a 7,320-square-foot residential lot (Exhibit 3).

Analysis of the Issues

Historical Listing

In March 1999, the City Council approved Ordinance No. NS-2363 establishing the Historic Resources Commission and the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The Historic Resources Commission may, by resolution and at a noticed public hearing, designate as a historical property any building or part thereof, object, structure, or site having importance to the history or architecture of the city in accordance with the criteria set forth in Section 30-2 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code (SAMC). This project entails applying the selection criteria established in Chapter 30 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code (Places of Historical and Architectural Significance) to determine if this structure is eligible for historic designation to the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The first criterion for selection requires that the structures be 50 or more years old.

The structure identified meets the selection criteria for inclusion on the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties pursuant to criteria contained in Section 30-2 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code, as the structure is 101 years old and is a sound example of period architecture. No known code violations exist on record for this property.

The Dixon-Heemstra House is architecturally significant as an intact example of a Craftsman style house in Santa Ana. The original building permit is dated June 1923, which indicates it was built as a single family residence and garage for owner and homebuilder W.H. Dixon for $4,000. Dixon, affiliated with W.H. Dixon and Son, was a local contractor and builder in Santa Ana and greater Orange County (Santa Ana Register, March 30, 1930). The original architect is unknown. In 1923, newspapers advertised the sale of the subject property as “Dixon’s Durable Dwelling” built in the “exclusive highly restricted Strong tract” (Santa Ana Register, October 25, 1923). City directories note that the property was vacant in 1924; however, from 1925 to 1929 Benjamin Heemstra is listed as the building's occupant. From 1930 to 1931, P.H. Budd is the known occupant, who contributed to Orange County’s first engineer report by Engineer Thomas Means in 1931. Budd later became an engineer for the Orange County flood-control district in 1934 and was ultimately appointed as the Orange County flood-control engineer in 1952 (Santa Ana Register, December 28, 1952). C.R. McCaslin occupied the property for one year in 1932. During the years 1933 and 1934, F.H. Albrecht is listed as the occupant, and then L.G. Holman is the known occupant from 1935 to 1937. From 1938 to 1939, C.H. Dale is the occupant. The property is listed as vacant in 1940. In 1941, both R.L. Fleming and H.R. McGuire are noted as building occupants. From 1944 to 1950 Mrs. Jessie Wild occupied the property. City directories were not available from 1957 to 1959, in 1962, and between 1966 and 1978. From 1979 to 1995, R.S. Fink occupied the property, and from 1999 to 2008, Stephen Loft owned the property. No additional information was uncovered regarding the previously noted owners and occupants. The current owners Jill Brumett and Mona Konstan purchased the property in 2019.

The Dixon-Heemstra House is a one story, single-family, Craftsman Style residence and detached garage located on a small parcel in the Floral Park neighborhood. The main residence's asymmetrical primary façade faces West 19th Street to the north. The residence exhibits an L-shaped plan with a long side-gable porch roof that intersects two front gables at the primary (north) façade. The building's low-pitch roof is clad in asphalt shingles with overhanging eaves and exposed rafter tails. The exterior of the house is clad in narrow horizontal wood panel siding. At the primary (north) façade, the covered porch wraps around the building's northeast corner and is supported by three porch columns. Exposed beams are located at the gable end of the porch's east side. The primary entrance is situated within the covered porch at the primary (north) façade and is composed of a single glazed door with divided lights. Two large tripartite wood-frame windows, comprised of a central fixed window between two narrow double-hung windows with divided lights, flank the main entrance.

Fenestration on the side (west) façade consists of several double-hung wood windows of various size, along with a small casement window. The side (east) façade consists of double-hung windows with a multi-light pattern on the upper light as well as those without any divided lights, and one multi-light glazed door. The rear (south) façade includes double-hung wood windows in a group of three and one single window are located at the rear façade, along with a single casement window. Window framing throughout the building is made of wide framing with an emphasized sill and header. The main entrance door also consists of the same framing to match.

The rear (south) façade is made of the primary gable roof and a smaller gable roof at the southeast corner of the building. The smaller gable roof houses the 2019 laundry room addition to kitchen. The addition's siding material is slightly differentiated from the original siding to indicate it is a later addition.

The detached garage is situated to the southeast of the main residence. The front-gabled garage has an off-centered vehicular double-door that slides open. Siding is designed to match the main residence along with extended eaves and exposed rafter tails. No windows are present except for a rear opening that has since been infilled.

Additional architectural features include front entrance concrete pathway and concrete porch deck and a Hollywood driveway, which has been modified from grass to gravel at its center. Metal window awnings have been added to a few west-façade windows as a later addition. The property is landscaped with a front lawn, small shrubs, and a few medium-sized trees.

Character-defining features of the Dixon-Heemstra House include, but may not be limited to: L-shaped plan; asymmetrical primary façade; low-pitch roof with overhanging eaves and exposed rafter tails; long side-gabled porch roof that intersects two front gables at the primary façade; narrow horizontal wood panel siding; the porch's exposed beams at the gable's end and three porch support columns; primary entrance composed of a single glazed door with divided lights; two large tripartite wood-frame windows, comprised of a central fixed window between two narrow double-hung windows with divided lights, which flank the main entrance; original windows and doors and window/door framing throughout; detached garage; front yard lawn with landscaping including mature trees and shrubs; and the Hollywood driveway (if restored from gravel to grass in center). The Dixon-Heemstra House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an intact example of a Craftsman Style home in Santa Ana. The recommended categorization is “Key” because it has a distinctive architectural style and quality reflective of the Craftsman style.

Mills Act Agreement

Ordinance No. NS-2382 authorized the Historic Resources Commission to execute Historic Property Preservation Agreements (HPPA), commonly known as Mills Act agreements for eligible properties (Exhibit 2). To be eligible for the Mills Act, the property must be listed on the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The Historic Resources Commission Application and Historic Register Categorization actions proposed for this site authorize the listing of the property on the local register. The agreement provides monetary incentives to the property owner in the form of a property tax reduction in exchange for the owner’s voluntary commitment to maintain the property in a good state of repair as necessary to maintain its character and appearance. Once recorded, the agreement generates a different valuation method in determining the property’s assessed value, resulting in tax savings for the owner. Aside from the tax savings, the benefits include:

- Long term preservation of the property and visual improvement to the neighborhood
- A mechanism to provide for property rehabilitation
- Incentives for potential buyers to purchase historic structures
- Discouraging inappropriate alterations to the property

The property has no identified unauthorized modifications. Upon consideration of the application, it is recommended that the City enter into a Historic Property Preservation Agreement subject to a completion of future improvements as described in an attached Work Plan.

Overall, future improvements (Work Plan) proposed by the homeowner during the initial ten years of the Mills Act Agreement include the following: restoration of Hollywood driveway, repair window pulls throughout, and continued landscape maintenance. The Hollywood driveway restoration will be completed within the first five years of the contract. Staff will ensure that all proposed work will be done sensitively and will maintain the property’s character-defining features as part of the Mills Act Agreement for this property.

As part of the Mills Act approval process, staff will work with the applicant to ensure that a bronze plaque is installed honoring and recognizing the structure. The plaque will include the historic name, address, year built, and local historic register designation.

Lastly, the site will be subject to general maintenance and upkeep requirements including, but not limited to, replacement or restoration of damaged character-defining features, landscaping upkeep, painting, etc. Upon consideration of the application, it is recommended that the City enter into a Historic Property Preservation Agreement to enable the Mills Act.

Public Notification

The subject site is located within the Floral Park Neighborhood Association. The president of this Neighborhood Association was notified by mail 10 days prior to this public hearing. In addition, the project site was posted with a notice advertising this public hearing, a notice was published in the Orange County Reporter and mailed notices were sent to all property owners within 500 feet of the project site. At the time of this printing, no correspondence, either written or electronic, has been received from any members of the public.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

Pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and the CEQA Guidelines, the project is exempt from further review pursuant to Section 15331 of the CEQA Guidelines (Class 31 – Historical Resource Restoration/Rehabilitation) as these actions are designed to preserve historic resources. Based on this analysis, a Notice of Exemption, Environmental Review No. 2024-11 will be filed for this project.

FISCAL IMPACT

The Historic Property Preservation Agreement will reduce the Property Tax revenue account 01102002-50011 to the City by an estimated $804.95 annually, for a period of not less than ten years.

3. Standards and Conditions for Historic Property.

During the term of this Agreement, the Historic Property shall be subject to the following conditions, requirements and restrictions:

a. Owner shall maintain the Historic Property in a good state of repair and shall preserve, maintain, and, where necessary, restore or rehabilitate the property and its character-defining features described in the "Executive Summary" and "Historical Property Description" attached hereto, marked collectively as Exhibit B, notably the general architectural form, style, materials, design, scale, proportions, organization of windows, doors, and other openings,

These guidelines are attached hereto, marked as Exhibit C, and incorporated herein by this reference. Owner shall continually maintain the Historic Property in the same or better condition.

c. A view corridor enabling the general public to see the Historic Property from the public right-of-way shall be maintained, and Owner shall not be permitted to block the view corridor to the property with any new structure, such as walls, fences or shrubbery, so as to prevent the viewing of the historic landmark by the public.

4. Furnishing of Information.

The Owner hereby agrees to furnish the City with any and all information requested which may be necessary or advisable to determine compliance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

5. Cancellation.

a. The City, following a duly noticed public hearing by the City Council as set forth in Government Code Section 50280, et. seq., may cancel this Agreement if it determines that the Owner have breached any of the conditions of this Agreement, or has allowed the property to deteriorate to the point that it no longer meets the standards for a qualified Historic Property, or if the City determines that the Owner have failed to restore or rehabilitate the property in the manner specified in Section 3 of this Agreement. If a contract is cancelled for these reasons, the Owner shall pay a cancellation fee to the County Auditor as set forth in Government Code Section 50286. This cancellation fee shall be a percentage (currently set at twelve and one-half (12 ½) percent by Government Code Section 50286) of the current fair market value of the property at the time of the cancellation, as determined by the county assessor, without regard to any restriction imposed pursuant to this Agreement.

b. If the Historic Property is destroyed by earthquake, fire, flood or other natural disaster such that in the opinion of the City Building Official more than sixty (60) percent of the original fabric of the structure must be replaced, this Agreement shall be canceled immediately because, in effect, the historic value of the structure will have been destroyed. No fee shall be imposed in the case of destruction by acts of God or natural disaster.

c. If the Historic Property is acquired by eminent domain and the City Council determines that the acquisition frustrates the purpose of this Agreement, this Agreement shall be cancelled and no fee imposed, as specified in Government Code Section 50288.

6. Enforcement of Agreement.

a. In lieu of and/or in addition to any provisions to cancel the Agreement as referenced herein, City may specifically enforce, or enjoin the breach of, the terms of the Agreement. In the event of a default, under the provisions to cancel the Agreement by Owner, the City shall give written notice to Owner by registered or certified mail, and if such a violation is not corrected to the reasonable satisfaction of the City Manager or designee within thirty (30) days thereafter, or if not corrected within such a reasonable time as may be required to cure the breach or default, or default cannot be cured within thirty (30) days (provided that acts to cure the breach or default may be commenced within thirty (30) days and shall thereafter be diligently pursued to completion by Owner), then City may, without further notice, declare a default under the terms of this Agreement and may bring any action necessary to specifically enforce the obligations of Owner growing out of the terms of this Agreement, apply to any court, state or federal, for injunctive relief against any violation by Owner or apply for such relief as may be appropriate.

b. City does not waive any claim of default by the Owner if City does not enforce or cancel this Agreement. All other remedies at law or in equity which are not otherwise provided for in this Agreement or in City's regulations governing historic properties are available to City to pursue in the event that there is a breach of this Agreement. No waiver by City of any breach or default under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other subsequent breach thereof or default hereunder.

8. No Compensation.

Owner shall not receive any payment from City in consideration of the obligation imposed under this Agreement, it being recognized that the consideration for the execution of this Agreement is the substantial public benefit to be derived therefrom and the advantage that will accrue to Owner as a result of the effect upon the assessed value of the Property on the account of the restrictions on the use and preservation of the Property.

ARCHITECTURAL STYLE: Craftsman

Closely related to the English Arts and Crafts Movement, American Craftsman architecture was popularized by The Craftsman magazine and architects such as Charles and Henry Greene of Pasadena. It drew from the wood building traditions of Japan and Switzerland as well as the medieval themes favored by the Arts and Crafts philosophers. Craftsman architecture stressed honesty of form, materials, and workmanship, eschewing applied decoration in favor of the straightforward expression of structure. A new appreciation of nature was evident in horizontal lines that reached out to embrace the landscape and the incorporation of capacious porches into building plans. Primarily a residential style, Craftsman architecture can be identified by low pitched gable and hipped roofs with exposed rafters and beams in deep overhangs; wood lap or shingle siding and an occasional use of stucco; extensive use of stone or brick as a secondary material; horizontal emphasis apparent in roof lines, headers, and battered porch supports; and broadly proportioned wood framed windows, often clustered in bands. Craftsman homes were built from circa 1902 until the early 1920s.

SUMMARY/CONCLUSION:

The Dixon-Heemstra House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 for embodiment of the distinguishing characteristics of a late Craftsman style residential building. The recommended categorization is "Key" because it has a distinctive architectural style and quality reflective of the Craftsman style (Santa Ana Municipal Code, Section 30-2.2(2)).

(Discuss importance in terms of historical or architectural context as defined by theme, period, and geographic scope. Also address integrity)

The Dixon-Heemstra House is architecturally significant as an intact example of a Craftsman style house in Santa Ana. The original building permit is dated June 1923, which indicates it was built as a single family residence and garage for owner and homebuilder W.H. Dixon for $4,000. Dixon, affiliated with W.H. Dixon and Son, was a local contractor and builder in Santa Ana and greater Orange County (Santa Ana Register, March 30, 1930). The original architect is unknown. In 1923, newspapers advertised the sale of the subject property as "Dixon's Durable Dwelling" built in the "exclusive highly restricted Strong tract" (Santa Ana Register, October 25, 1923). City directories note that the property was vacant in 1924; however, from 1925 to 1929 Benjamin Heemstra is listed as the building's occupant. From 1930 to 1931, P.H. Budd is the known occupant, who contributed to Orange County's first engineer report by Engineer Thomas Means in 1931. Budd later became an engineer for the Orange County flood-control district in 1934 and was ultimately appointed as the Orange County flood-control engineer in 1952 (Santa Ana Register, December 28, 1952). (See Continuation Sheet 3 of 5).

Fenestration on the side (west) façade consists of several double-hung wood windows of various size, along with a small casement window (Figure 5). The side (east) façade consists of double-hung windows with a multi-light pattern on the upper light as well as those without any divided lights, and one multi-light glazed door. The rear (south) façade includes double-hung wood windows in a group of three and one single window are located at the rear façade, along with a single casement window. Window framing throughout the building is made of wide framing with an emphasized sill and header. The main entrance door also consists of the same framing to match.

The rear (south) façade is made of the primary gable roof and a smaller gable roof at the southeast corner of the building. The smaller gable roof houses the 2019 laundry room addition to kitchen (Figure 6). The addition's siding material is slightly differentiated from the original siding to indicate it is a later addition.

The detached garage is situated to the southeast of the main residence. The front-gabled garage has an off-centered vehicular double-door that slides open (Figure 7). Siding is designed to match the main residence along with extended eaves and exposed rafter tails. No windows are present except for a rear opening that has since been infilled.

Additional architectural features include front entrance concrete pathway and concrete porch deck and a Hollywood driveway which has been modified from grass to gravel at its center. Metal window awnings have been added to a few west-façade windows as a later addition. The property is landscaped with a front lawn, small shrubs, and a few medium-sized trees.

C.R. McCaslin occupied the property for one year in 1932. During the years 1933 and 1934, F.H. Albrecht is listed as the occupant, and then L.G. Holman is the known occupant from 1935 to 1937. From 1938 to 1939, C.H. Dale is the occupant. The property is listed as vacant in 1940. In 1941, both R.L. Fleming and H.R. McGuire are noted as building occupants. From 1944 to 1950 Mrs. Jessie Wild occupied the property. City directories were not available from 1957 to 1959, in 1962, and between 1966 and 1978. From 1979 to 1995, R.S. Fink occupied the property, and from 1999 to 2008, Stephen Loft owned the property. No additional information was uncovered regarding the previously noted owners and occupants. The current owners Jill Brumett and Mona Konstan purchased the property in 2019.

The Dixon-Heemstra House is located in Floral Park, a neighborhood northwest of downtown Santa Ana bounded by West Seventeenth Street, North Flower Street, Riverside Drive, and Broadway. Groves of orange, avocado, and walnut trees and widely scattered ranch houses characterized this area before 1920. Developer and builder Allison Honer (1897-1981), credited as the subdivider and builder of a major portion of northwest Santa Ana, arrived in Santa Ana from Beaver Falls, New York in 1922 (Talbert, pages 353-356). "Before nightfall on the day of his arrival, Mr. Honer purchased a parcel of land. And that month, he began building custom homes in Santa Ana" (Orange County Register, September 15, 1981). The parcel chosen became the Floral Park subdivision between Seventeenth Street and Santiago Creek. "When built in the 1920s, the Floral Park homes were the most lavish and expensive in the area. They sold for about $45,000 each" (Orange County Register, September 15, 1981). Revival architecture in a wide variety of romantic styles was celebrated in the 1920s and 1930s and Floral Park showcased examples of the English Tudor, French Norman, Spanish Colonial, and Colonial Revival. The Allison Honer Construction Company went on to complete such notable projects as the 1935 Art Deco styled Old Santa Ana City Hall, the El Toro Marine Base during World War II, and the 1960 Honer Shopping Plaza. Honer lived in the neighborhood he had helped to create, at 615 West Santa Clara Avenue.

In the late 1920s and 1930s, another builder, Roy Roscoe Russell (1881-1965), continued developing the groves of Floral Park. An early Russell project was his 1928 subdivision of Victoria Drive between West Nineteenth Street and West Santa Clara Avenue. The homes were quite grand and displayed various revival styles, including Russell's own large, Colonial Revival mansion at 2009 Victoria Drive. In 1937, Roy Rodney Russell, joined his father's firm and by 1945 it was renamed as Roy Russell and Son. In the early post World War II years, Floral Park continued its development as numerous, smaller, single-family houses were built. Continuing in the Floral Park tradition, they were mostly revival in style. In the 1950s, low, horizontal Ranch Style houses completed the growth of Floral Park. Today (2023) Floral Park maintains its identity as the premier neighborhood of Santa Ana, historically home to many affluent and prominent citizens.

The Dixon-Heemstra House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an intact example of a Craftsman style home in Santa Ana. Located in Floral Park, the house cost $4,000 to build in 1923. The recommended categorization is "Key" because it has a distinctive architectural style and quality reflective of the Craftsman style (Santa Ana Municipal Code, Section 30-2.2). Character-defining features of the Dixon-Heemstra House include, but may not be limited to: L-shaped plan; asymmetrical primary façade; low-pitch roof with overhanging eaves and exposed rafter tails; long side-gabled porch roof that intersects two front gables at the primary façade; narrow horizontal wood panel siding; the porch's exposed beams at the gable's end and three porch support columns; primary entrance composed of a

Exhibit C

Exterior work shall be reviewed by the Historic Resources Commission and subject to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation of Historic Buildings, as follows:

1. Every reasonable effort shall be made to provide a compatible use for a property which requires minimal alteration of the building, structure, or site and its environment, or to use a property for its originally intended purpose.
2. The distinguishing original qualities or character of a building, structure or site and its environment shall not be destroyed. The removal or alteration of any historic material or distinctive architectural features should be avoided when possible.
3. All buildings, structures, and sites shall be recognized as products of their own time. Alterations that have no historical basis and which seek to create an earlier appearance shall be discouraged.
4. Changes which may have taken place in the course of time are evidence of the history and development of a building, structure, or site and its environment. These changes may have acquired significance in their own right, and this significance shall be recognized and respected.
5. Distinctive stylistic features or examples of skilled craftsmanship which characterize a building, structure, or site shall be treated with sensitivity.
6. Deteriorated architectural features shall be repaired rather than replaced, whenever possible. In the event replacement is necessary, the new material should match the material being replaced in composition, design, color, texture, and other visual qualities. Repair or replacement of missing architectural features should be based on accurate duplications of features, substantiated by historic, physical, or pictorial evidence rather than on conjectural designs or the availability of different architectural elements from the other buildings or structures.
7. The surface cleaning of structures shall be undertaken with the gentlest means possible. Sandblasting and other cleaning methods that will damage the historic building materials shall not be undertaken.
8. Every reasonable effort shall be made to protect and reserve archaeological resources affected by, or adjacent to any project.
9. Contemporary design for alterations and additions to existing properties shall not be discouraged when such alterations and additions do not destroy significant historical, architectural or cultural material, and such design is compatible with size, scale, color, material and character of the property, neighborhood, or environment.

10. Wherever possible, new additions or alterations to structures shall be done in such a manner that if such additions or alterations need to be removed in the future, the essential form and integrity of the structure would be unimpaired.
