RECOMMENDED ACTION

1. Adopt a resolution approving Historic Resources Commission Application No. 2022-4 and Historic Register Categorization No. 2022-4 (Exhibit 1).
2. Recommend that the City Council authorize the City Manager and Clerk of the Council to execute the attached Mills Act agreement with Ronald R. and Robin L. Romain, subject to non-substantive changes approved by the City Manager and City Attorney (Exhibit 2).

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Ronald R. and Robin L. Romain are requesting approval to designate an existing residence located at 2116 N. Ross Street to the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties, as well as approval to execute a Mills Act agreement with the City of Santa Ana.

DISCUSSION

Project Location and Site Description

The subject property is located on the west side of North Ross Street in the Floral Park neighborhood. The site contains a 1,746-square-foot, Tudor Revival style residence and detached garage on an 8,700-square-foot residential lot (Exhibit 3).

Analysis of the Issues

Historical Listing

In March 1999, the City Council approved Ordinance No. NS-2363 establishing the Historic Resources Commission and the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The Historic Resources Commission may, by resolution and at a noticed public hearing, designate as a historical property any building or part thereof, object, structure, or site having importance to the history or architecture of the city in accordance with the criteria set forth in Section 30-2 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code (SAMC). This project entails applying the selection criteria established in Chapter 30 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code (Places of Historical and Architectural Significance) to determine if this structure is eligible for historic designation to the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The first criterion for selection requires that the structures be 50 or more years old.

The structure identified meets the minimum selection criteria for inclusion on the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties pursuant to criteria contained in Section 30-2 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code, as the structure is 93 years old and is a good example of period architecture. No known code violations exist on record for this property.

The Bessie Coulter House is architecturally significant as a characteristic example of the Tudor Revival style. This house was originally constructed in 1929, according to County of Orange records. The original building permit was not located. The earliest record shows that local realtor F. Carl Mock lived in the home with his family from 1930-1933 before the home sold to F.E. and Bessie Coulter. It is interesting to note that Carl Mock (1888-1970) came to Santa Ana in 1915 and received real estate license number three and was a major player in real estate and development in Santa Ana and greater Orange County prior to his death in 1970. The home was the used as a rental by the Coulters during the late 1930s and early 1940s when Myron LeSourd rented the home before building his own house at 2447 N. Heliotrope Drive. This is evidenced by newspaper clippings of the era. The home was the scene of many parties, social and club meetings pertaining to Ebell and Junior Ebell. Bessie Coulter (1890-1974) was during the era, the longest continuous owner of the property.

The Bessie Coulter House is a one-story single-family residential building constructed in the Tudor Revival architectural style. Asymmetrical in design, the house exhibits a steeply pitched front gable roof, characterized by uneven rakes, that projects from the side-gabled and hipped roof at the primary (east) façade. The front-gabled wing is centered between a window bay to the south and an attached porte cochere to the north and contains the main entrance within an arched porch and an adjacent arched, fixed window. Both entry and window are deeply recessed into the building. The main entrance consists of an arched door with a single, narrow light. Segmental arch openings characterize the porte cochere. Building fenestration includes double, wood-framed, casement windows with divided lights on the primary and north elevations. Fenestration on the side and rear (west) elevations includes wood-framed French doors with divided lights, double-hung windows, and has three contemporary, wood-framed French doors lacking muntins on the rear elevation. A stucco-clad covered patio with double segmental arch openings is located to the rear of the building. The property is simply landscaped with two mature trees, a lawn, low vegetation and simple walkway at the front setback. A driveway parallels the north elevation and leads to the detached, one-story, two-car garage, which is also clad in stucco. Character-defining features of the house include its include its massing and composition, consisting of a side-gabled body with a projecting front gable mid facade; arched entry occupied by the original front door and living room window contained within the front gable projection; uneven rakes on the fairly steeply pitched front gable; stucco exterior; and multi-light casement windows. More unusual is the hipped roof extension to the north housing a porte cochere beneath a segmental arch opening.

The Bessie Coulter House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an example of the Tudor Revival style in Santa Ana. The property appears to be substantially intact, although the chimney was apparently truncated to roof level at some point. The house displays characteristics of the Tudor Revival through its steeply-pitched front-gabled roof, shallow eaves, asymmetrical massing, arched entry porch with arched front door; and multi-paned windows. The Bessie Coulter House has been categorized as “Contributive” for it “contributes to the overall character and history” of the Floral Park neighborhood and is a representative example of Tudor Revival architecture.

Mills Act Agreement

Ordinance No. NS-2382 authorized the Historic Resources Commission to execute Historic Property Preservation Agreements (HPPA), commonly known as Mills Act agreements for eligible properties (Exhibit 2). To be eligible for the Mills Act, the property must be listed on the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The Historic Resources Commission Application and Historic Register Categorization actions proposed for this site authorize the listing of the property on the local register. The agreement provides monetary incentives to the property owner in the form of a property tax reduction in exchange for the owner’s voluntary commitment to maintain the property in a good state of repair as necessary to maintain its character and appearance. Once recorded, the agreement generates a different valuation method in determining the property’s assessed value, resulting in tax savings for the owner. Aside from the tax savings, the benefits include:

- Long term preservation of the property and visual improvement to the neighborhood
- Allows for a mechanism to provide for property rehabilitation
- Provides additional incentive for potential buyers to purchase historic structures
- Discourages inappropriate alterations to the property

The property has no identified unauthorized modifications. Upon consideration of the application, it is recommended that the City enter into a Historic Property Preservation Agreement.

Public Notification

The subject site is located within the Floral Park neighborhood. The president of this Neighborhood Association was notified by mail 10 days prior to this public hearing. In addition, the project site was posted with a notice advertising this public hearing, a notice was published in the Orange County Reporter and mailed notices were sent to all property owners within 500 feet of the project site. At the time of this printing, no correspondence, either written or electronic, has been received from any members of the public.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

Pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and the CEQA Guidelines, the project is exempt from further review pursuant to Section 15331 of the CEQA Guidelines (Class 31 – Historical Resource Restoration/Rehabilitation) as these actions are designed to preserve historic resources. Based on this analysis, a Notice of Exemption, Environmental Review No. 2022-30 will be filed for this project.

FISCAL IMPACT

The Historic Property Preservation Agreement will reduce the Property Tax revenue account 01102002-50011 to the City by an estimated $475.73 annually, for a period of not less than ten years.

During the term of this Agreement, the Historic Property shall be subject to the following conditions, requirements and restrictions:

These guidelines are attached hereto, marked as Exhibit C, and incorporated herein by this reference. Owner shall continually maintain the Historic Property in the same or better condition.

c. A view corridor enabling the general public to see the Historic Property from the public right-of-way shall be maintained, and Owner shall not be permitted to block the view corridor to the property with any new structure, such as walls, fences or shrubbery, so as to prevent the viewing of the historic landmark by the public.

d. The following are prohibited: demolition of the Historic Property or destruction of character-defining features of the building or site; removal of trees and other major vegetation unless removal is approved by a rehabilitation plan approved by the Historic Resources Commission; paving of yard surface; exterior alterations or additions unless approved by the Historic Resources Commission and such alterations are in keeping with the Secretary of Interior's Standards; deteriorating, dilapidated or unrepaired structures such as fences, roofs, doors, walls, and windows; storage of junk, trash, debris, discarded or unused objects such as cars, appliances, or furniture; and other unsightly by decoration, structure or vegetation which is unsightly by reason of its height, condition, or inappropriate location.

4. Furnishing of Information.

The Owner hereby agrees to furnish the City with any and all information requested which may be necessary or advisable to determine compliance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

5. Cancellation.

a. The City, following a duly noticed public hearing by the City Council as set forth in Government Code Section 50280, et. seq., may cancel this Agreement if it determines that the Owner have breached any of the conditions of this Agreement, or has allowed the property to deteriorate to the point that it no longer meets the standards for a qualified Historic Property, or if the City determines that the Owner have failed to restore or rehabilitate the property in the manner specified in Section 3 of this Agreement. If a contract is cancelled for these reasons, the Owner shall pay a cancellation fee to the County Auditor as set forth in Government Code Section 50286. This cancellation fee shall be a percentage (currently set at twelve and one-half (12 ½) percent by Government Code Section 50286) of the current fair market value of the

b. If the Historic Property is destroyed by earthquake, fire, flood or other natural disaster such that in the opinion of the City Building Official more than sixty (60) percent of the original fabric of the structure must be replaced, this Agreement shall be canceled immediately because, in effect, the historic value of the structure will have been destroyed. No fee shall be imposed in the case of destruction by acts of God or natural disaster.

6. Enforcement of Agreement.

a. In lieu of and/or in addition to any provisions to cancel the Agreement as referenced herein, City may specifically enforce, or enjoin the breach of, the terms of the Agreement. In the event of a default, under the provisions to cancel the Agreement by Owner, the City shall give written notice to Owner by registered or certified mail, and if such a violation is not corrected to the reasonable satisfaction of the City Manager or designee within thirty (30) days thereafter, or if not corrected within such a reasonable time as may be required to cure the breach or default, or default cannot be cured within thirty (30) days (provided that acts to cure the breach or default may be commenced within thirty (30) days and shall thereafter be diligently pursued to completion by Owner), then City may, without further notice, declare a default under the terms of this Agreement and may bring any action necessary to specifically enforce the obligations of Owner growing out of the terms of this Agreement, apply to any court, state or federal, for injunctive relief against any violation by Owner or apply for such relief as may be appropriate.

b. City does not waive any claim of default by the Owner if City does not enforce or cancel this Agreement. All other remedies at law or in equity which are not otherwise provided for in this Agreement or in City's regulations governing historic properties are available to City to pursue in the event that there is a breach of this Agreement. 8. No Compensation.

Owner shall not receive any payment from City in consideration of the obligation imposed under this Agreement, it being recognized that the consideration for the execution of this Agreement is the substantial public benefit to be derived therefrom and the advantage that will accrue to Owner as a result of the effect upon the assessed value of the Property on the account of the restrictions on the use and preservation of the Property.

ARCHITECTURAL STYLE: Tudor Revival

The Tudor Revival looked to medieval England for its inspiration. Signature features of the style include steeply pitched gables; decorative half-timbering; arched openings, often Tudor or Gothic in form; asymmetrical arrangements of building features; tall brick chimneys; and picturesque windows of leaded glass or diamond patterned lights. The more ambitious examples of the Tudor Revival were executed in brick or even stone; however, stucco over wood frame is quite common in the forgiving climate of southern California. The Tudor Revival was favored primarily for residential buildings, although small scale commercial buildings in the style also occur. Originating in the late 19th century, the Tudor Revival was associated with some Craftsman era building but was most popular during the 1920s and 1930s.

SUMMARY/CONCLUSION:

The Bessie Coulter House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an example of the Tudor Revival style in Santa Ana. The property appears to be substantially intact, although the chimney was apparently truncated to roof level at some point. Additionally, the house has been categorized as “Contributive” because it “contributes to the overall character and history” of the Floral Park neighborhood and is a representative example of Tudor Revival architecture (Santa Ana Municipal Code, Section 30-2.2).

Located in Floral Park on the west side of North Ross Street, the Bessie Coulter House is a one-story single-family residential building constructed in the Tudor Revival architectural style. The subject property is made up of a long, narrow lot that contains the residence to the east and a detached garage to the west. The residential building has an L-shaped footprint and is clad in smooth stucco. It features a roof that is cross-gabled at both the front and rear of the building. The roof is clad in composition shingles with minimal overhanging eaves and exposed rafter tails. Asymmetrical in design, the house exhibits a steeply pitched front gable roof, characterized by uneven rakes, that projects from the side-gabled and hipped roof at the primary (east) façade. The front-gabled wing is centered between a window bay to the south and an attached porte cochere to the north and contains the main entrance within an arched porch and an adjacent arched, fixed window. Both entry and window are deeply recessed into the building. The main entrance consists of an arched door with a single, narrow light. Segmental arch openings characterize the porte cochere. Building fenestration includes double, wood-framed, casement windows with divided lights on the primary and north elevations. Fenestration on the side and rear (west) elevations includes wood-framed French doors with divided lights, double-hung windows, and has three contemporary, wood-framed French doors lacking muntins on the rear elevation. A stucco-clad covered patio with double segmental arch openings is located to the rear of the building. Other features of note include columns of three small vents near the peak of the gable ends and two brick chimneys. The property is simply landscaped with two mature trees, a lawn, low vegetation and simple walkway at the front setback. A driveway parallels the north elevation and leads to the detached, one-story, two-car garage, which is also clad in stucco. The garage's primary (east) façade features a front gable roof with a projecting, shed roof clad in composition shingles and garage door below the main gable. A single, wood pedestrian door and double-hung wood-frame window are also on the primary façade. The garage gable end contains two round vents below the front gable to match the main house.

The Bessie Coulter House is architecturally significant as a characteristic example of the Tudor Revival style. The original building permit was not located. The earliest record shows that local realtor F. Carl Mock lived in the home with his family from 1930-1933 before the home sold to F.E. and Bessie Coulter. It is interesting to note that Carl Mock (1888-1970) came to Santa Ana in 1915 and received real estate license number three and was a major player in real estate and development in Santa Ana and Greater Orange County prior to his death in 1970. The home was the used as a rental by the Coulters during the late 1930s and early 1940s when Myron LeSourd rented the home before building his own house at 2447 N. Heliotrope Drive. This is evidenced by newspaper clippings of the era. The home was the scene of many parties, social and club meetings pertaining to Ebell and Junior Ebell. Bessie Coulter (1890-1974) was during the era the longest continuous owner of the property.

The Bessie Coulter House is located in Floral Park, a neighborhood northwest of downtown Santa Ana bounded by West Seventeenth Street, North Flower Street, Riverside Drive, and Broadway. Groves of orange, avocado, and walnut trees and widely scattered ranch houses characterized this area before 1920. Developer and builder Allison Honer (1897-1981), credited as the subdivider and builder of a major portion of northwest Santa Ana, arrived in Santa Ana from Beaver Falls, New York in 1922 (Talbert, pages 353-356). "Before nightfall on the day of his arrival, Mr. Honer purchased a parcel of land. And that month, he began building custom homes in Santa Ana" (Orange County Register, September 15, 1981). The parcel chosen became the Floral Park subdivision between Seventeenth Street and Santiago Creek. "When built in the 1920s, the Floral Park homes were the most lavish and expensive in the area. They sold for about $45,000 each" (Orange County Register, September 15, 1981). Revival architecture in a wide variety of romantic styles was celebrated in the 1920s and 1930s and Floral Park showcased examples of the English Tudor, French Norman, Spanish Colonial, and Colonial Revival. The Allison Honer Construction Company went on to complete such notable projects as the 1935 Art Deco styled Old Santa Ana City Hall, the El Toro Marine Base during World War II, and the 1960 Honer Shopping Plaza. Honer lived in the neighborhood he had helped to create, at 615 West Santa Clara Avenue.

In the late 1920s and 1930s, another builder, Roy Roscoe Russell (1881-1965), continued developing the groves of Floral Park. An early Russell project was his 1928 subdivision of Victoria Drive between West Nineteenth Street and West Santa Clara Avenue. The homes were quite grand and displayed various revival styles, including Russell's own large, Colonial Revival mansion at 2009 Victoria Drive. In the early post World War II years, Floral Park continued its development as numerous, smaller, single-family houses were built. Continuing in the Floral Park tradition, they were mostly revival in style. In the 1950s, low, horizontal Ranch Style houses completed the growth of Floral Park. Today (2022) Floral Park maintains its identity as the premier neighborhood of Santa Ana, historically home to many affluent and prominent citizens.

The Bessie Coulter House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an example of the Tudor Revival style in Santa Ana. The property appears to be substantially intact, although the chimney was apparently truncated to roof level at some point. Additionally, the house has been categorized as "Contributive" because it "contributes to the overall character and history" of the Floral Park neighborhood and is a representative example of Tudor Revival architecture (Santa Ana Municipal Code, Section 30-2.2). Character-defining features of the Tudor Revival style exhibited by the house include its massing and composition, consisting of a side-gabled body with a projecting front gable mid facade; arched entry occupied by the original front door and living room window contained within the front gable projection; uneven rakes on the fairly steeply pitched front gable; stucco exterior; and multi-light casement windows. More unusual is the hipped roof extension to the north housing a porte cochere beneath a segmental arch opening.

Exhibit C

Exterior work shall be reviewed by the Historic Resources Commission and subject to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation of Historic Buildings, as follows:

1. Every reasonable effort shall be made to provide a compatible use for a property which requires minimal alteration of the building, structure, or site and its environment, or to use a property for its originally intended purpose.
2. The distinguishing original qualities or character of a building, structure or site and its environment shall not be destroyed. The removal or alteration of any historic material or distinctive architectural features should be avoided when possible.
3. All buildings, structures, and sites shall be recognized as products of their own time. Alterations that have no historical basis and which seek to create an earlier appearance shall be discouraged.
4. Changes which may have taken place in the course of time are evidence of the history and development of a building, structure, or site and its environment. These changes may have acquired significance in their own right, and this significance shall be recognized and respected.
5. Distinctive stylistic features or examples of skilled craftsmanship which characterize a building, structure, or site shall be treated with sensitivity.
6. Deteriorated architectural features shall be repaired rather than replaced, whenever possible. In the event replacement is necessary, the new material should match the material being replaced in composition, design, color, texture, and other visual qualities. Repair or replacement of missing architectural features should be based on accurate duplications of features, substantiated by historic, physical, or pictorial evidence rather than on conjectural designs or the availability of different architectural elements from the other buildings or structures.
7. The surface cleaning of structures shall be undertaken with the gentlest means possible. Sandblasting and other cleaning methods that will damage the historic building materials shall not be undertaken.
8. Every reasonable effort shall be made to protect and reserve archaeological resources affected by, or adjacent to any project.
9. Contemporary design for alterations and additions to existing properties shall not be discouraged when such alterations and additions do not destroy significant historical, architectural or cultural material, an such design is compatible with size, scale, color, material and character of the property, neighborhood, or environment.

10. Wherever possible, new additions or alterations to structures shall be done in such a manner that if such additions or alterations need to be removed in the future, the essential form and integrity of the structure would be unimpaired.
