EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

DISCUSSION

Project Location and Site Description

The subject property is located on the west side of Greenleaf Street in the Floral Park neighborhood. The site contains a 2,527-square-foot, Monterrey Revival style residence and detached garage on a 7,600-square-foot residential lot (Exhibit 3).

Analysis of the Issues

Historical Listing

In March 1999, the City Council approved Ordinance No. NS-2363 establishing the Historic Resources Commission and the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The Historic Resources Commission may, by resolution and at a noticed public hearing, designate as a historical property any building or part thereof, object, structure, or site having importance to the history or architecture of the city in accordance with the criteria set forth in Section 30-2 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code (SAMC). This project entails applying the selection criteria established in Chapter 30 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code (Places of Historical and Architectural Significance) to determine if this structure is eligible for historic designation to the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The first criterion for selection requires that the structures be 50 or more years old.

The structure identified meets the minimum selection criteria for inclusion on the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties pursuant to criteria contained in Section 30-2 of the Santa Ana Municipal Code, as the structure is 86 years old and is a good example of period architecture. No known code violations exist on record for this property.

The Dr. Mabel A. Geddes House is architecturally significant as an intact and characteristic example of the Monterey Revival architectural style in Santa Ana. The property was built in 1936 by Jasper Farney, partner in the prominent Santa Ana construction and development company of Honer, Herzig, and Farney. The home was built for Dr. Mabel A. Geddes and her husband William Geddes, who resided on the property with their three sons, David, John, and Francis. Dr. Mabel A. Geddes was a supervisor of health for Orange County schools, Board member of the Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) of Santa Ana, and a Chairperson of Orange County Nutrition Committee. David Geddes went on to become a doctor and was a leading Orange County psychiatrist for 50 years, and responsible for founding the Rush Center for psychiatric care at St. Joseph Medical Center in Orange. Dr. Mabel A. Geddes and her family resided on the property until mid- to late-1970s. According to City directories, the property was occupied by Robert Bruce and Alice Sinclair. City directories show that they resided on the property until 2010 before the property was transferred or bought by Kimberly Sinclair. Kimberly Sinclair remained at the property until the current owner's purchased the property.

The Dr. Mable A. Geddes House is a two-story single-family residence constructed in a Monterey Revival style. Asymmetrical in design, the house exhibits a hipped roof body with a hipped roof wing projecting in the north third of the (east) façade. Shallow eaves characterize the second floor along the front (east) and side (south) elevations; exposed rafter tails are mostly hidden by non-original gutters. The roof is covered in contemporary asphalt shingle roofing, and the exterior walls are clad in a combination of brick and stucco exterior siding. The south two-thirds of the (east) façade features a prominent partial width balcony cantilevered beneath the shelter of the main roof on extended beams, with wood posts and wrought iron railing enclosing the balcony. Exposed rafters punctuate the balcony roof. The front entry is defined by an open veranda below the balcony with a set of multi-light casement windows and a flat-headed entry door topped by three-light transom. The hipped roof wing projection along the east façade has a decorative scalloped trim molding separating the first and second floor, and multi-light casement windows flanked by wood shutters on the first and second floor. The partial width balcony features a set of French doors and two fixed windows, each flanked by a single wood shutter. Along the north, south, and west elevations, the building incorporates a series of double-hung wood windows and multi-light casement windows. The west (rear) elevation features a second story balcony while an exterior brick chimney is attached to the side (north) elevation and rises above the roof ridgeline. The property is landscaped with a mature tree, a lawn, and low vegetation at the front setback. The driveway leads to a one-story, stucco-clad, one-car garage, built at the same time as the residence. The house appears intact and has been maintained in good condition. Character defining features of the Dr. Mabel A. Geddes House that should be preserved include, but may not be limited to, massing and composition, consisting of a hipped roof body with a hipped roof wing projecting in the north third of the (east) facade; partial width balcony cantilevered beneath the shelter of the main roof on extended beams from the south two-thirds of the façade; wood posts and wrought iron railing enclosing the balcony; open veranda below the balcony; combination of brick and stucco exterior siding; flat-headed entry topped by three-light transom; and casement windows and French doors.

The Dr. Mabel A. Geddes House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an example of the Monterey Revival style in Santa Ana. Additionally, the house has been categorized as “Contributive” because it contributes to the overall character and history of Floral Park and is a representative example of Monterey Revival architecture.

Mills Act Agreement

Ordinance No. NS-2382 authorized the Historic Resources Commission to execute Historic Property Preservation Agreements (HPPA), commonly known as Mills Act agreements for eligible properties (Exhibit 2). To be eligible for the Mills Act, the property must be listed on the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties. The Historic Resources Commission Application and Historic Register Categorization actions proposed for this site authorize the listing of the property on the local register. The agreement provides monetary incentives to the property owner in the form of a property tax reduction in exchange for the owner’s voluntary commitment to maintain the property in a good state of repair as necessary to maintain its character and appearance. Once recorded, the agreement generates a different valuation method in determining the property’s assessed value, resulting in tax savings for the owner. Aside from the tax savings, the benefits include:

- Long term preservation of the property and visual improvement to the neighborhood
- Allows for a mechanism to provide for property rehabilitation
- Provides additional incentive for potential buyers to purchase historic structures
- Discourages inappropriate alterations to the property

The property has no identified unauthorized modifications. Upon consideration of the application, it is recommended that the City enter into a Historic Property Preservation Agreement.

Public Notification

The subject site is located within the Floral Park Neighborhood Association. The president of this Neighborhood Association was notified by mail 10 days prior to this public hearing. In addition, the project site was posted with a notice advertising this public hearing, a notice was published in the Orange County Reporter and mailed notices were sent to all property owners within 500 feet of the project site. At the time of this printing, no correspondence, either written or electronic, has been received from any members of the public.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

Pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and the CEQA Guidelines, the project is exempt from further review pursuant to Section 15331 of the CEQA Guidelines (Class 31 – Historical Resource Restoration/Rehabilitation) as these actions are designed to preserve historic resources. Based on this analysis, a Notice of Exemption, Environmental Review No. 2022-44 will be filed for this project.

FISCAL IMPACT

The Historic Property Preservation Agreement will reduce the Property Tax revenue account 01102002-50011 to the City by an estimated $1,559.25 annually, for a period of not less than ten years.

During the term of this Agreement, the Historic Property shall be subject to the following conditions, requirements and restrictions:

a. Owner shall maintain the Historic Property in a good state of repair and shall preserve, maintain, and, where necessary, restore or rehabilitate the property and its character-defining features described in the "Historical Property Description" attached hereto, marked as Exhibit B, notably the general architectural form, style, materials, design, scale, proportions, organization of windows, doors, and other openings, textures, details, mass, roof line, porch and other aspects of the appearance of the exterior to the satisfaction of the City.

These guidelines are attached hereto, marked as Exhibit C, and incorporated herein by this reference. Owner shall continually maintain the Historic Property in the same or better condition.

c. A view corridor enabling the general public to see the Historic Property from the public right-of-way shall be maintained, and Owner shall not be permitted to block the view corridor to the property with any new structure, such as walls, fences or shrubbery, so as to prevent the viewing of the historic landmark by the public.

d. 4. Furnishing of Information.

The Owner hereby agrees to furnish the City with any and all information requested which may be necessary or advisable to determine compliance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

5. Cancellation.

a. The City, following a duly noticed public hearing by the City Council as set forth in Government Code Section 50280, et. seq., may cancel this Agreement if it determines that the Owner have breached any of the conditions of this Agreement, or has allowed the property to deteriorate to the point that it no longer meets the standards for a qualified Historic Property, or if the City determines that the Owner have failed to restore or rehabilitate the property in the manner specified in Section 3 of this Agreement. If a contract is cancelled for these reasons, the Owner shall pay a cancellation fee to the County Auditor as set forth in Government Code Section 50286. This cancellation fee shall be a percentage (currently set at twelve and one-half (12 ½) percent by Government Code Section 50286) of the current fair market value of the

No fee shall be imposed in the case of destruction by acts of God or natural disaster.

c. If the Historic Property is acquired by eminent domain and the City Council determines that the acquisition frustrates the purpose of this Agreement, this Agreement shall be cancelled and no fee imposed, as specified in Government Code Section 50288.

6. Enforcement of Agreement.

a. In lieu of and/or in addition to any provisions to cancel the Agreement as referenced herein, City may specifically enforce, or enjoin the breach of, the terms of the Agreement. In the event of a default, under the provisions to cancel the Agreement by Owner, the City shall give written notice to Owner by registered or certified mail, and if such a violation is not corrected to the reasonable satisfaction of the City Manager or designee within thirty (30) days thereafter, or if not corrected within such a reasonable time as may be required to cure the breach or default, or default cannot be cured within thirty (30) days (provided that acts to cure the breach or default may be commenced within thirty (30) days and shall thereafter be diligently pursued to completion by Owner), then City may, without further notice, declare a default under the terms of this Agreement and may bring any action necessary to specifically enforce the obligations of Owner growing out of the terms of this Agreement, apply to any court, state or federal, for injunctive relief against any violation by Owner or apply for such relief as may be appropriate.

b. City does not waive any claim of default by the Owner if City does not enforce or cancel this Agreement. All other remedies at law or in equity which are not otherwise provided for in this Agreement or in City's regulations governing historic properties are available to City to pursue in the event that there is a breach of this Agreement. No waiver by City of any breach or default under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other subsequent breach thereof or default hereunder.

ARCHITECTURAL STYLE: Monterey Revival

The Monterey is a free interpretation of the Anglo-influenced Spanish Colonial houses of northern California. These blended Spanish adobe construction with pitched-roof, massed-plan English shapes brought to California from New England. However, the key identifying feature of the Monterey – was derived from house forms built in the southeastern United States, the Caribbean, and the Bahamas. The 1834 Larking House in Monterey, California, is generally identified as the first of this distinctive form of early pitched-roof Spanish Colonial houses. Thomas Oliver Larkin, the owner-designer of it, had traveled in South Carolina and Bermuda, where similar houses were found. California architect Roland E. Coate, Sr., played a crucial role in reviving the style. Between 1929 and 1932 he wrote about the early Monterey homes, designed at least two homes in the Monterey, and won a prestigious Better Homes in American Awards for an elegant Santa Barbara example. His efforts helped bring the style to the attention of both professionals and the public. Some early examples from 1925 to 1940 have Spanish detailing, while those from the 1940s and 1950s generally include only English Colonial details. A third, less common, variation was sometimes called Creole French; these had decorative iron balconies inspired by the upper-level balconies found in the Vieux Carré in New Orleans. Though scattered examples of Monterey houses occur throughout the country in suburbs built during the second quarter of the 20th Century, they are perhaps most common in California and Texas. (McAlester, pp. 539-540).

SUMMARY/CONCLUSION:

The Dr. Mabel A. Geddes House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an example of the Monterey Revival style in Santa Ana. Additionally, the house has been categorized as "Contributive" because it contributes to the overall character and history of Floral Park and is a representative example of Monterey Revival architecture (Municipal Code, Section 30-2.2).

*P3a. Description: (Describe resource and its major elements. Include design, materials, condition, alterations, size, setting, and boundaries)

Located in Floral Park, this is a two-story single-family residence constructed in a Monterey Revival style. Asymmetrical in design, the house exhibits a hipped roof body with a hipped roof wing projecting in the north third of the (east) façade. Shallow eaves characterize the second floor along the front (east) and side (south) elevations; exposed rafter tails are mostly hidden by non-original gutters. The roof is covered in contemporary asphalt shingle roofing, and the exterior walls are clad in a combination of brick and stucco exterior siding. The south two-thirds of the (east) façade features a prominent partial width balcony cantilevered beneath the shelter of the main roof on extended beams, with wood posts and wrought iron railing enclosing the balcony. Exposed rafters punctuate the balcony roof. The front entry is defined by an open veranda below the balcony with a set of multi-light casement windows and a flat-headed entry door topped by three-light transom. The hipped roof wing projection along the east façade has a decorative scalloped trim molding separating the first and second floor, and multi-light casement windows flanked by wood shutters on the first and second floor. The partial width balcony features a set of french doors and two fixed windows, each flanked by a single wood shutter. Along the north, south, and west elevations, the building incorporates a series of double-hung wood windows and multi-light casement windows. The west (rear) elevation features a second story balcony while an exterior brick chimney is attached to the side (north) elevation and rises above the roof ridge line. The property is landscaped with a mature tree, a lawn, and low vegetation at the front setback. The driveway leads to a one-story, stucco-clad, one-car garage, built at the same time as the residence. The house appears intact and is in good condition.

The Dr. Mabel A. Geddes House is architecturally significant as an intact and characteristic example of the Monterey Revival architectural style in Santa Ana. Substantially intact, the property was built in 1936 by Jasper Farney, partner in the prominent Santa Ana construction and development company of Honer, Herzig, and Farney. The home was built for Dr. Mabel A. Geddes and her husband William Geddes, who resided on the property with their three sons, David, John, and Francis. Dr. Mabel A. Geddes was a supervisor of health for Orange County schools, Board member of the Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) of Santa Ana, and a Chairperson of Orange County Nutrition Committee. David Geddes went on to become a doctor and was a leading Orange County psychiatrist for 50 years, and responsible for founding the Rush Center for psychiatric care at St. Joseph Medical Center in Orange. Dr. Mabel A. Geddes and her family resided on the property until mid- to late-1970s. According to City directories, the property was occupied by Robert Bruce and Alice Sinclair. City directories show that they resided on the property until 2010 before the property was transferred or bought by Kimberly Sinclair. Kimberly Sinclair remained at the property until the current owner's purchased the property.

Santa Ana was founded by William Spurgeon in 1869 as a speculative town site on part of the Spanish land grant known as Rancho Santiago de Santa Ana. The civic and commercial core of the community was centered around the intersection of Main and Fourth Streets. Stimulated by the arrival of the Santa Fe Railroad and incorporation as a city in 1886, and selection as the seat of the newly created County of Orange in 1889, the city grew outwards, with residential neighborhoods developing to the north, south, and east of the city center. Agricultural uses predominated in the outlying areas, with cultivated fields and orchards dotted with widely scattered farmhouses.

*The Dr. Mabel A. Geddes House is located in Floral Park, a neighborhood northwest of downtown Santa Ana bounded by West Seventeenth Street, North Flower Street, Riverside Drive, and Broadway. Groves of oranges, avocados, and walnuts and widely scattered ranch houses characterized this area before 1920. Developer and builder Allison Honer (1897-1981), credited as the subdivider and builder of a major portion of northwest Santa Ana, arrived in Santa Ana from Beaver Falls, New York in 1922 (Talbert, pages 353-356). "Before nightfall on the day of his arrival, Mr. Honer purchased a parcel of land. And that month, he began building custom homes in Santa Ana" (Orange County Register, September 15, 1981). The parcel chosen became the Floral Park subdivision between Seventeenth Street and Santiago Creek. "When built in the 1920s, the Floral Park homes were the most lavish and expensive in the area. They sold for about $45,000 each" (Orange County Register, September 15, 1981). Revival architecture in a wide variety of romantic styles was celebrated in the 1920s and 1930s and Floral Park showcased examples of the English Tudor, French Norman, Spanish Colonial, and Colonial Revival.*

The Allison Honer Construction Company went on to complete such notable projects as the 1935 Art Deco styled Old Santa Ana City Hall, the El Toro Marine Base during World War II, and the 1960 Honer Shopping Plaza. Honer lived in the neighborhood he had helped to create, at 615 West Santa Clara Avenue.

In the late 1920s and 1930s, another builder, Roy Roscoe Russell (1881-1965), continued developing the groves of Floral Park. An early Russell project was his 1928 subdivision of Victoria Drive between West Nineteenth Street and West Santa Clara Avenue. The homes were quite grand and displayed various revival styles, including Russell's own large, Colonial Revival mansion at 2009 Victoria Drive. In the early post World War II years, Floral Park continued its development as numerous, smaller, single-family houses were built. Continuing in the Floral Park tradition, they were mostly revival in style. In the 1950s, low, horizontal Ranch Style houses completed the growth of Floral Park. Today (2022) Floral Park maintains its identity as the premier neighborhood of Santa Ana, historically home to many affluent and prominent citizens.

The Dr. Mabel A. Geddes House qualifies for listing in the Santa Ana Register of Historical Properties under Criterion 1 as an example of the Monterey Revival style in Santa Ana. Additionally, the house has been categorized as "Contributive" because it contributes to the overall character and history of Floral Park and is a representative example of Monterey Revival architecture. Character defining features of the Dr. Mabel A. Geddes House that should be preserved include, but may not be limited to, massing and composition, consisting of a hipped roof body with a hipped roof wing projecting in the north third of the (east) facade; partial width balcony cantilevered beneath the shelter of the main roof on extended beams from the south two-thirds of the facade; wood posts and wrought iron railing enclosing the balcony; open veranda below the balcony; combination of brick and stucco exterior siding; flat-headed entry topped by three-light transom; and casement windows and french doors.

Exhibit C

Exterior work shall be reviewed by the Historic Resources Commission and subject to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation of Historic Buildings, as follows:

1. Every reasonable effort shall be made to provide a compatible use for a property which requires minimal alteration of the building, structure, or site and its environment, or to use a property for its originally intended purpose.
2. The distinguishing original qualities or character of a building, structure or site and its environment shall not be destroyed. The removal or alteration of any historic material or distinctive architectural features should be avoided when possible.
3. All buildings, structures, and sites shall be recognized as products of their own time. Alterations that have no historical basis and which seek to create an earlier appearance shall be discouraged.
4. Changes which may have taken place in the course of time are evidence of the history and development of a building, structure, or site and its environment. These changes may have acquired significance in their own right, and this significance shall be recognized and respected.
5. Distinctive stylistic features or examples of skilled craftsmanship which characterize a building, structure, or site shall be treated with sensitivity.
6. Deteriorated architectural features shall be repaired rather than replaced, whenever possible. In the event replacement is necessary, the new material should match the material being replaced in composition, design, color, texture, and other visual qualities. Repair or replacement of missing architectural features should be based on accurate duplications of features, substantiated by historic, physical, or pictorial evidence rather than on conjectural designs or the availability of different architectural elements from the other buildings or structures.
7. The surface cleaning of structures shall be undertaken with the gentlest means possible. Sandblasting and other cleaning methods that will damage the historic building materials shall not be undertaken.
8. Every reasonable effort shall be made to protect and reserve archaeological resources affected by, or adjacent to any project.
9. Contemporary design for alterations and additions to existing properties shall not be discouraged when such alterations and additions do not destroy significant historical, architectural or cultural material, and such design is compatible with size, scale, color, material and character of the property, neighborhood, or environment.

10. Wherever possible, new additions or alterations to structures shall be done in such a manner that if such additions or alterations need to be removed in the future, the essential form and integrity of the structure would be unimpaired.
