Takeover Crash on Anaheim Plaza Marketplace Injured Woman

Anaheim, CA (October 22, 2020) – On Thursday, a woman was injured in a takeover crash on Anaheim Plaza Marketplace.

The incident took place at about 1:30 a.m. on 430 North Euclid Street.

The woman was struck by a vehicle doing donuts in a shopping center parking lot. Apparently, several hundred cars took part in the takeover.

Immediately, the rescuers took the victim to a hospital with stable vital signs.

Meanwhile, the driver fled the scene after the crash. The authorities later arrested and took them into custody.

Practice safe driving habits on the road at all times... even when it is empty, even when there is no police officer around to make sure you make a full and complete stop.
